

Athol Public Library Art Exhibition Application

Thank you for your interest in exhibiting at the Athol Public Library. The Athol Public Library, located in downtown Athol, underwent a major renovation and expansion in 2013-2014, creating new opportunities for programs and exhibitions. The library Conference Room on the ground floor is the primary exhibition space for artwork. The Conference Room walls are equipped with a theft-deterrent picture hanging system and can accommodate two dimensional works only. The available wall space measures approximately 65 linear feet. Please visit the library and view the Conference Room exhibit space prior to applying so that you are familiar with the characteristics of the space. To apply to exhibit at the Athol Public Library follow the three steps below:
