

I am unique and talented.
I wonder how so many animals die and nobody cares.
I hear cries of terror.
I see animals in harmony.
I want peace in the world.
I am unique and talented.

I pretend sometimes I am king.
I feel that life is too short.
I touch crafted stone walls.
I worry that animals are not cared for.
I cry for people in pain.
I am unique and talented.

I understand that life is hard.
I say that animal rights are good.
I dream about becoming a president.
I try to be the best I can.
I hope that the world changes.
I am unique and talented.

I am curious and intelligent.
I wonder what the future holds.
I hear everyone calling my name.
I see people all around.
I want to achieve my dreams.
I am curious and intelligent

I pretend I am famous
I feel the stares on me.
I touch the scripts I have to memorize.
I worry I will ruin everything.
I cry that I can't be everything I want to be.
I am curious and intelligent.

I understand that life goes on.
I say that everyone should realize that.
I dream about being a teacher.
I try to do my best at everything.
I hope everything will work out for the best.
I am curious and intelligent.

I am hard-working and optimistic.
I wonder if I should sow some seeds in my garden.
I hear the earth calling me.
I see tiny shoots poking through the soil.
I want to taste the sweetness of my garden veggies.
I am hard-working and optimistic.

I pretend I am a bee.
I feel the warmth of the sun.
I touch the soft petals of the sunflower.
I worry about a return to winter's cold.
I cry for those in my hive who didn't make it for the coming spring.
I am hard-working and optimistic.

I understand the cycle of life and death.
I say we must get closer to the rhythms of the earth.
I dream of days filled with sunshine, warmth, and closeness to nature.
I try to do my part for our earth.
I hope we can live in peace with our earth.
I am hard-working and optimistic.
